A resolution signed by all members of a Managing Body of the Society shall be of the same force and effect as if duly passed at a meeting of such Managing Body.

(l) CONTINUING MEMBERS MAY FILL VACANCIES DESPITE ABSENCE OF QUORUM:

The continuing members of a Managing Body of the Society may act notwithstanding any vacancy in such Body, but, if so long as their number is reduced below the number fixed by these Rules as the necessary quorum, the continuing members of a Managing Body of the Society may act for the purpose of increasing their number to that number, but for no other purpose.

(m) DEFECTS IN APPOINTMENTS NOT TO INVALIDATE PROCEEDINGS:

All acts by a meeting of a Managing Body of the Society shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of a member comprising such Managing Body, or that such member was disqualified, be as valid as if such member had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a member.

(n) DELEGATION OF POWERS:

A Managing Body of the Society may delegate any of its powers to committees consisting of one or more members of their Body and/or of the Society as they think fit, provided that it shall not be competent for the Council to delegate its powers to fix membership fees in terms of these Rules. Any committee so formed shall, in the exercise of the powers so delegated to it, conform to any instruction or directions which may be given to or imposed upon it by such Managing Body of the Society.

(o) APOLOGIES FOR NONATTENDANCE OF NATIONAL AND EXECUTIVE MEETINGS:

Any Council member who is not able to attend a national meeting or executive meeting shall submit a written apology to the Secretariat at least six (6) weeks prior to the scheduled meeting. A written apology at shorter notice shall require additional information specifically if such nonattendance of the meeting shall have financial implications for the Society.

22. DISQUALIFICATION OF MEMBERS OF A MANAGING BODY OF THE SOCIETY

The office of a member of a Managing Body of the Society shall be vacated:

- a) if he ceases for any cause to be member of that Body;
- b) if he resigns his office by notice in writing to the Secretariat, or person acting as the Secretariat for that Body, or to the Secretariat in the case of the president, president-elect, national treasurer, public liaison officer, ISRRT representative, CPD representative and editor, and;
- c) if he fails to attend two consecutive meetings of that Body, unless such Body shall, in its discretion, otherwise determine.

23. FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

- a) All moneys received on account of the Society shall be applied in carrying out the objects of the Society and shall be paid to the credit of the Society into a bank, or other institution approved by the Council, and all electronic withdrawals or withdrawal forms shall be signed by two of the three designated members appointed by Council. All internet payments/withdrawals to be approved by email by two of the three designated members, and all three to be provided with proof of such transactions for auditing purposes. All withdrawals shall be ratified by EXCO unless such payment is minuted.
- b) All expenses incurred in connection with the administration of the Society shall form a charge upon the assets of the Society.

- c) The Society's financial year shall run from 1 January to 31 December.

24. ALTERATIONS TO THE CONSTITUTION

The Council shall have the right at any time, on the proposal of a member of the Council or Society, to rescind, amend, add to or otherwise alter these Rules, or any of them, as it thinks fit, provided that:

- a) at least one month prior to the date of any meeting of the Council, convened to consider any such proposed rescission, amendment, addition or alteration, notice of such proposed rescission, amendment, addition or alteration, and of the terms thereof, has been given by such proposing member to the Council and that Council has given notice of such proposed changes electronically or in writing to all members;
- b) the Council may adopt any such proposed rescission, amendment, addition or alteration with or without modification, as it sees fit;
- c) no rescission, amendment, addition or alteration shall be effective, unless it has been passed and approved by a majority of at least 75% of the members of the Council present at such meeting, and;
- d) if and when any such proposed rescission, amendment, addition or alteration has been passed and approved as aforesaid, the minutes clerk of the Executive Committee shall circularise the terms of such rescission, amendment, addition or alteration to all its members of the Society and publish on the Society website;
- e) a copy of any such rescission or amendment or addition be submitted to the Commissioner for South African Revenue Service within 14 (fourteen) days of the resolution in respect thereof having been passed.

25. WINDING UP OF THE SOCIETY

- a) The Society may be wound up or dissolved at any time by a decision of 75% (seventy-five percent) of members in each province as provided in 14 (a) above, and 75% (seventy-five percent) of the Council members.
- b) Any surplus funds or assets of the Society remaining after payment of all debts, liabilities, administration and liquidation expenses shall be dealt with as provided in paragraph 4 (bis)(a) (i) above.

26. HEADNOTES

The head notes and sub-notes to these Rules shall not be read as part thereof, the same having been inserted merely for convenience of reference.
